

Islamic Institute Ball Hockey League

2021-2022 DISCLAIMER

The Islamic Institute Ball Hockey League (IIBHL) has been granted the opportunity to restart the league. Because COVID-19 is still a concern, we are implementing a ZERO-TOLERANCE policy to maintain a safe playing environment for our players and a safe working environment for our volunteers. There are several COVID-19 rule amendments that will be in place for the foreseeable future or until COVID-19 is no longer a health threat.

Volunteers: ALL volunteers must read and understand the amendments below. Please note, as mentioned above, the league is taking a zero-tolerance policy HENCE there may be disciplinary action taken for any violation of the rules and regulations below without warning.

- If you are a volunteer aged 18 or older, please sign the document.
- If you are a volunteer under the age of 18, a parent and the volunteer must both sign the document.

Players: For ALL players, parents must read and understand the addenda below (and if they can, players must read and understand them as well). Please note, as mentioned above, the league is taking a zero-tolerance policy HENCE there may be disciplinary action taken towards any violation of the rules and regulations below without warning.

- Tier 2 players, a parent must sign the document.
- Tier 1 players, a parent and player must sign the document.

COVID-19 Policy

- Doors open 35 minutes before the scheduled game time and close 15 minutes before the scheduled game time.
 - No early or late entry will be permitted.
 - All participants must enter through designated doors.
- No in and out privileges.
- All participants must check in and complete COVID-19 screening at designated screening area.
- All participants will be immediately ushered to their seat/bench and must not otherwise move freely within building.
 - Hallways, water fountains, and washrooms are off limits.
- Masks must be worn at all times and be properly fitted – including all players, coaches and volunteers.
 - Temporarily removing your mask to have a drink is permissible.
- All participants must check out and leave as soon as the game has concluded, and through the specified exit doors.
 - In the event where siblings have different game times, the sibling not playing will be allowed to stay and watch the game of the sibling that is playing from a designated area and must leave together immediately following the conclusion of the later game.
 - This exception is also applicable to any family member taking the siblings home.
- All IIBHL volunteers will be required to be fully vaccinated and should be fully vaccinated prior to the commencement of the league.
- The IIBHL holds a ZERO-TOLERANCE policy regarding any of the COVID-19 amendments listed above. Without warning, any violations may warrant:
 - Being escorted out of the building
 - Suspension from the IIBHL
 - Expulsion from the IIBHL

2021-2022 DISCLAIMER

These amendments were made using Health Canada and Public Health Guidelines. The amendments are in place to not only protect all participants in the IIBHL, but also our extended family and the communities we live in. With your cooperation, we can help make our communities safer for everyone with hopes of one day returning to what we know as normal.

Updates

Should we make any updates to the COVID-19 amendments laid out in this document, those updates will be communicated via email and/or a physical copy will be sent home with your child/children.
