Overview of IIBHL

The IIBHL is a non-profit league run entirely by volunteers.

To meet the demands of the growing ball hockey population at the Islamic Institute of Toronto (IIT) on Friday nights, the Islamic Institute Ball Hockey League (IIBHL) was formed. From our humble beginnings of 4 teams in 2014, we were able to grow to 6, then to 8, then to 10, and then to 12 teams a few seasons ago.

Our mission is to engage our youth aged 6-16 in a safe and fun halal environment, not only by teaching them how to improve their ball hockey skills, but also by showing them how to enhance their good Islamic character with encouragement and positive role models.

Suhaib S. (7 yrs old): winner of the 2017-2018 Tier 2 Regular Season Most Valuable Player award.

“A great league, run by great people, that helped grow my passion for ball hockey. It also helped to develop sportsmanship and dedication to the sport.” – Ibraheem Siddiqui: IIBHL Hall of Famer
